

(Winter holiday week at high altitude)

In the beautiful oasis of the Val d'Aosta Alps at a height of 2200 mt., nearly Pila, the so called "Petit Village" is ready to host anyone who likes snow and mountains. The "Petit Village" is made of the restaurant "Lo Baoutson" and of a residence with three to rent apartments. All the apartments are heated by a gaz convector and a wood-burning stove, while the bathrooms are heated by an independent radiator.

The restaurant "Lo Baoutson" is perfect to try all typical dishes of Val d'Aosta cuisine. Both the restaurant and the refuge are reachable only with a snowmobile. This accommodation straight on the ski runs, gives our guests the chance to start skiing early morning when the skilifts are still closed.
